The Yorkshire Young Achievers Awards were established in order to recognise and reward outstanding achievement by young people in or from Yorkshire. Anyone can make a nomination and anyone can be a winner, as long as they meet the requirements.

The winners are decided by a panel of senior members of the Yorkshire community representing different walks of life and Awards are presented at the Gala Dinner.

The Awards, given in the following categories, are open to anyone who was born, lives or works in Yorkshire and is under the age of 35.
